MUDA 50:50 site scam probe

Ex-MUDA Commr. Dinesh Kumar

MISSING?

- ED on the hunt to trace whereabouts of officer
- Another former MUDA Commissioner Dr. D.B. Natesh released after intense grilling

Mysuru / Bengaluru, Oct.30 (KMS,RK&BCT)- The Enforcement Directorate (ED) in Bengaluru has launched a manhunt for former MUDA Commissioner G.T. Dinesh Kumar, who is embroiled in a web of controversy and corruption allegations tied to the MUDA 50:50 site distribution scam.

Upon learning of the ED's raid at his home in Deepika Royal Apartments, Banaswadi, G.T. Dinesh Kumar, abruptly abandoned his morning walk on Monday and went into hiding. Reports from Bengaluru this morning indicate that ED officials are currently attempting to track his whereabouts.

Sources reveal that Dinesh Kumar has not returned home and his mobile phone remains switched off. ED officers attempted to reach him and waited for him to switch on his phone.

Meanwhile, the ED sleuths in Bengaluru released another former MUDA Commissioner Dr. D.B. Natesh late last night, following his brief custody after a lengthy 33-hour raid at his residence in Malleswaram 10th Cross.

After the raid, Natesh was subsequently taken to the ED office in Shanthinagar, Bengaluru, amidst reports of non-cooperation. As Natesh was released, ED officials informed him that he must present himself whenever required and answer questions regarding site distribution activities during his tenure at MUDA.

Natesh and Dinesh Kumar are accused of fabricating documents and unlawfully distributing MUDA sites valued at hundreds of crores to vested interests. The allegations against Natesh include the controversial granting of 14 sites to CM Siddaramaiah's wife B.M. Parvathi, as well as illegal allotment of 928 sites in 50:50 ratio during his tenure.

Mason to millionaire in... just 10 years!

Enforcement Directorate wraps up raid on city realtor after 52 hours

Mysuru, Oct. 30 (BLU&BCT)- Expanding its investigation into the multi-crore 50:50 site allotment scam involving the Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA), the Enforcement Directorate (ED) has wrapped up a 52-hour raid at M.M.G. Constructions Office on New Kantharaj Urs Road. The construction firm is owned by M.M.G. Jayaram.

M.M.G. Jayaram

Before leaving the premises with documents this morning, the ED sleuths locked the office and also the office of Vakrathunda Housing Cooperative Society, headed by Jayaram.

Interesting details have emerged out of the raid. Sources said that Jayaram was a mason just a decade ago. He has transformed into a millionaire, reportedly accumulating his wealth through MUDA's controversial 50:50 site deals.

Hailing from H.D. Kote in Mysuru, Jayaram leveraged his connections with contractors to elevate his status.

Over time, he fostered relationships with MUDA officials, quickly rising to prominence. Today, his name is synonymous with nearly every 50:50 land deal in the region.

Allegedly, Jayaram has established close ties with former MUDA Commissioners Dr. D.B. Natesh and G.T. Dinesh Kumar, with the 50:50 site sales becoming his main business focus. The Enforcement Directorate (ED) is now scrutinising his financial transactions, though it remains uncertain which politicians and officials connected to Jayaram may be implicated in this unfolding scam.

Sources indicate that Jayaram acted as a middleman for influential politicians and officials throughout Karnataka, including key figures in Mysuru and Bengaluru. This raid, conducted based on information gathered by the ED, aims to explore these alleged connections.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

DEEPAVALI AND KASI ANNAPOORANI: Deepavali, the festival of lights, is also the festival of sumptuous food, especially in Kasi, where the golden deity of Annapoorani, the Goddess of Food, holds centre stage, a sight that attracts countless devotees to the temple, said P. Swaminathan.

Puranas state that Parvati once playfully shut Paramasivan's eyes, which resulted in devastating darkness on earth, affecting life forms. Sivan managed to set right the course by opening His third eye. A contrite Parvati decided to do penance on earth for her playful act. Accordingly, she took abode in Kasi, with the name of Annapoorani, holding a rice bowl in one hand and a serving ladle in the other. The once prosperous town was in the grip of famine and the king prayed to Annapoorani to alleviate the famine, which she did. The king prayed that she resides for eternity in Kasi, ensuring prosperity of his subjects and she obliged.

According to Kasi Kandam, Brahma once had five heads and Sivan removed the fifth head (which symbolised ego). In order to negate the dosha from such a deed, He arrived in Kasi and prayed to Annapoorani to remove the same. The Purana says that she offered Him a ladle of rice as bhiksha and since she fed Paramasivan Himself, devotees pray to her with complete faith and fervour.

For three days, including Deepavali, the deity of Annapoorani, decked up in golden glory, gives darshan to devotees, which is a rarity. On the day of Deepavali, she grants darshan from early morning to late night. A grand procession of Annapoorani in a chariot, decked with laddoos, is another highlight during this time of celebrations.— In The Hindu

Golfer gets back his lost ring after 54 years!

Florida: A man who lost his U.S. Naval Academy class ring on a Pennsylvania golf course was reunited with the prized item by a fellow golfer 54 years later.

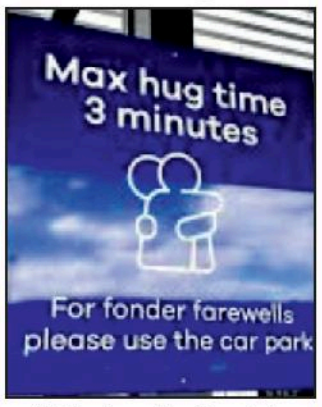
David Lorenzo, 82, said he lost his Class of 1964 ring while golfing with his father at Union Town Country Club, near Pittsburgh.

Michael Zenert, 70, was golfing at the same club recently when he spotted a shiny object in the clay.

Zenert searched for the ring's owner online and found a podcast episode in which Lorenzo talked about his experiences in the military.

He travelled to Florida to present Lorenzo with the ring at the National Naval Aviation Museum at Naval Air Station Pensacola, where Lorenzo is a volunteer.

Hug it out, but make it quick



Wellington: Emotional farewells are a common sight at airports, but travellers leaving New Zealand city of Dunedin will have to be quick. A new three-minute time limit on goodbye hugs in the airport's drop-off area is intended to prevent lingering cuddles from causing traffic jams.

"Max hug time three minutes," warn signs outside the terminal, adding that those seeking "fonder farewells" should head to the airport's parking lot instead.

The cuddle cap was imposed in September to "keep things moving smoothly" in the redesigned passenger drop-off area outside the airport, CEO Dan De Bono said. It was the airport's way of reminding people that the zone was for "quick farewells" only.

Resume city bus services stopped during COVID-19

Sir,

I am a daily commuter on the Mysuru City Transport buses. I wish to bring to your attention that several bus services, halted five years ago due to COVID-19 pandemic, have still not resumed. The discontinued services include:

• 10A (Kuvempunagar Depot): J.P. Nagar Last Bus Stop to L&T, via Chamundipuram, Ramaswamy Circle, Dasappa Circle, Vontikoppal.

• 11R (Kuvempunagar Depot): J.P. Nagar Last Bus Stop to City Bus Stand, via Chamundipuram, Railway Station, K.R. Hospital, Sub-Urban Bus Stand.

• 11R (Sathagalli Depot): J.P. Nagar Last Bus Stop to City Bus Stand, via Chamundipuram, Railway Station, K.R. Hospital, Sub-Urban Bus Stand.

• 11RG (Kuvempunagar Depot): Gurur Ring Road to City Bus Stand, via St. Thomas School, Ramanuja Road, JSS Hospital.

• 62RJ: J.P. Nagar Last Bus Stop to Vivekananda Nagar.

• 15 & 15A (Bannimantap Depot): J.P. Nagar Last Bus Stop to B.M. Srinagar.

• Routes 11C, 72, and 135 (Kuvempunagar Depot) and two Volvo buses previously departing at 8.30 am and 8.45 am from J.P. Nagar Last Bus Stop to Srirangapatna.

The unavailability of these essential services has been a daily struggle for commuters, including office-goers and students, who find it challenging to reach their destinations on time. Despite holding monthly passes, we are often forced to hire autos at our own expense. Students are also facing similar difficulties.

Moreover, buses departing from J.P. Nagar Last Bus Stop are usually full and often do not stop at Goblimara. There is a pronounced shortage of buses in J.P. Nagar and other localities between 8.30 am and 9.30 am.

In the interest of the general public, I request you to kindly:

• Resume the operation of the above-mentioned bus services at the earliest,

• Implement ITS boards displaying bus arrival times at all stops.

• Reinstate the SMS service to 161, providing bus arrival information via bus stop codes.

Celebrate this Deepavali with green crackers

One of the green cracker stalls on JLB Road in Mysuru.

Mysuru, Oct. 30 (MTY&VNS)- With Deepavali festivities all set to begin from tomorrow, the stalls selling 'green crackers' have sprung up at various parts of the city.

Like every year, the vendors have erected stalls after procuring licences from the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) and No Objection Certificates (NoCs) from the Police, Fire and Emergency Services, CESC and Pollution Control Board.

This year, State Government has made it mandatory to sell only green crackers which are considered to be environment friendly. Authorities have issued permission for the vendors to sell fire-crackers for a period of six days from Oct. 28 to Nov. 2.

Following this, about 15 stalls have been erected in J.K. Grounds, 16 stalls on JLB Road, 3 on Lalitha Mahal Palace Road, one at Bhutale Pitch (Grounds) and other areas. This apart, stalls have also been erected in Hebbal Industrial Area, which houses cracker godowns.

Instructions have been given to erect stalls in an area measuring 10 ft x 10 ft, 3 metres in height with six metres gap between each shop.

The authorities have banned cooking, smoking and sleeping inside the shops apart from banning the sale of harmful crackers. Vendors have been warned of stringent action if found violating the rules. The bar codes on cracker boxes should confirm the legality of being green crackers failing which the licences will be cancelled on the spot.

The vendors have been instructed not to use plastic items or carry bags. It is also mandatory to arrange sufficient lighting at the stalls and have two drums with capacity to store 400 litres of water to be used in case of any emergencies along with water pressure.

Students create awareness on fire-crackers

The students of Seshadripuram PU College created awareness about the ill-effects of bursting crackers on the environment by forming a human chain at Manchegowdana Koppal Circle in city recently.

The students, who took out a jatha, urged the residents not to light crackers on main roads but become nature-lovers. Congress leader Ravi and others joined them.

State Govt. is acting with animosity towards Mysore Royal Family: HDK

Channapatna, Oct. 30 (Agencies)- Congress State Government is acting with animosity towards the erstwhile Mysore Royal Family, which has made significant contributions to Karnataka's development over the decades, said Union Minister for Heavy Industries and Steel, H.D. Kumaraswamy here on Monday.

He was addressing a public gathering at Kudluru village as part of the campaign for the upcoming by-poll to Channapatna Assembly Constituency.

Stating that he was disappointed with the Government's bid to distance the Wadiyar family from their deity, Kumaraswamy said, "Goddess Chamundeshwari's sacred temple has always been managed by the Wadiyars, who have contributed significantly to the development of the area. They have also made invaluable contributions to Karnataka's progress in irrigation, education and industrial growth."

Kumaraswamy alleged that Chief Minister Siddaramaiah was giving this respected family continuous trouble claiming that the State Government was taking away their privilege to serve the deity.

Further, taking a dig at the Congress party, Kumaraswamy said, while he was campaigning focusing on the development works, the Congress party was focusing only on targeting him and his family during the campaign.

"There are plans to establish a large-scale industry between Ramanagara and Channapatna in an effort to provide employment to local residents. Prime Minister Narendra Modi has entrusted me with the Ministry of Large Industries and Steel and with the grace of God, I will work for the welfare of Ramanagara district," he said.

Union Minister H.D. Kumaraswamy addressing a public gathering at Kudluru village in Channapatna on Monday as part of the campaign for the upcoming by-poll to Channapatna Assembly Constituency as Mysuru-Kodagu MP Yaduveer Wadiyar and others look on.

Commenting on C.P. Yogeshwar joining the Congress party ahead of the by-poll, the Union Minister said that the JD(S) party was ready to forfeit the ticket to the BJP respecting the leaders of the BJP High Command.

"Even we had offered a ticket to Yogeshwar along with the BJP. But, he decided to join the Congress party and now he has been misleading people during his campaigns," said Kumaraswamy.

"They have also been commenting on my father and other family members for which I am not going to react. People of Channapatna will decide and give their verdict," added Kumaraswamy.

Mysuru-Kodagu MP Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar, who spoke on the occasion, stated that Nikhil Kumaraswamy, NDA candidate from Channapatna Assembly Constituency, who played a major role during BJP-JD(S) padayatra from Bengaluru to Mysuru in protest against the MUDA scam, had bright future to grow as a tall leader.

Taking a dig at the Congress party, Yaduveer added that ever since the party came to power it had been embroiled in scams and corruption.

'Degree is a passport; skills are a visa for success'

Mysuru, Oct. 30 (TRR)- "In this competitive world, it is essential for students to acquire specific knowledge and skills to become successful in their life. Degree certificates of Universities are like Passport which alone cannot enable someone to visit a foreign country as Visa is essential for the same. Similarly, along with Degree certificate, you need specific skills to become successful in your life," said Prof. N. Nagaraja, Registrar (Evaluation), University of Mysore.

He was speaking after inaugurating a one-day National Seminar jointly organised by Vidyavardhaka Degree College's Internal Quality Assessment Cell (IQAC) and Department of Commerce and Management here recently.

"Rashtriya Uchchatar Shiksha Abhiyan (RUSA) is set up with the intention of imparting skill education to students and help them to get employment. Degree certificates issued by Universities are akin to passports. But you cannot go to a foreign country with just your passport. You need Visa for that. Skill sets are like Visa. Hence, it is important for students to acquire their own skills," said the UoM Registrar.

Mysore University Registrar (Evaluation) Prof. N. Nagaraja inaugurating the National Seminar at Vidyavardhaka College in city recently.

He concluded by suggesting entrepreneurs to adopt suitable strategies, know the requirements of the society and study the marketing conditions to become successful entrepreneurs.

Dinesh Shenoy, Dean of School of Management Sciences at Chanakya University, Bengaluru, in his keynote address, said that, entrepreneurs are part of the society. "A real entrepreneur is one who identifies problems of the society by adopting new innovations and viewing them with different perspectives and provide solutions after in-depth study. It is also essential for an entrepreneur to understand the strategies of rivals and move towards the path of success by incorporating short term and long term goals," he added.

Vidyavardhaka College Principal Dr. S. Marigowda delivered the inaugural address.

Vidyavardhaka Sangha (VVS) President Gundappa Gowda presided over the event.

MUDA 50:50 site scam probe

ED clamps down on dubious transactors

Mysuru, Oct. 30 (BLU&BCT)- As the Enforcement Directorate (ED) intensifies its investigation into the Mysuru Urban Development Authority's (MUDA) multi-crore 50:50 site allotment scam, explosive details continue to emerge. The probe has widened significantly, with further developments anticipated as the ED tightens its grip on parties involved in the scam.

Camping in Mysuru since Monday, the ED officials have extended their investigation to include builders, officials, and politicians involved, conducting a high-profile raid on M.M.G. Constructions, owned by builder M.M.G. Jayaram.

During the raid, officials reportedly uncovered staggering financial records at M.M.G. Constructions, hinting at illicit transactions funnelled through MUDA's 50:50 scheme. Despite the office's modest appearance on New Kantharaj Urs Road, it is alleged that deals worth hundreds of crores of rupees were struck here, leaving ED officials stunned.

In an unusual move, ED officials intermittently left M.M.G. Constructions' premises to gather additional documents, diverging from the agency's typical one-day raid protocol.

While the ED typically wraps up operations within a day, seizing essential documents for later review, the investigation at MMG Constructions has spanned two days and ended this morning after 52 hours, revealing further layers of potential corruption.

To trace the financial trail, the ED will now analyse PAN and Aadhaar records of Jayaram and his staff and also scan the documents and records seized from his office.

Notably, the ED sleuths also visited the District Registrar's Office, seeking documentation of site sales and approvals, which triggered an urgent mobilisation of Mysuru's Sub-Registrar staff to compile the requested records.

Following the extensive raid at Natesh's Malleswaram residence, ED officials seized documents contained in two bags. Natesh, however, has maintained that he acted under Government orders and claimed to be unaware of any wrongdoing.

Among the 928 sites, some sites were allegedly allocated to builder Manjunath and a powerful Minister's nephew through MUDA Settlement Deeds. Complainant Snehamayi Krishna has called for the arrest and investigation of both former Commissioners.

ED raid on Rakesh Papanna's house ends

The ED also conducted a two-day raid at the residence of Rakesh Papanna, a close associate of Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and a former ZP member. The operation began on Monday around 7.30 am and extended late into Tuesday evening, with ED officials meticulously searching and examining documents.

The ED gathered crucial information related to various documents from Rakesh Papanna and his father, Hinkal Papanna. The investigation focused on the total assets owned by the Papannas, including inherited properties and those acquired individually, along with properties registered under Rakesh's name.

ED collected records about their businesses, shops and other dealings, and inspected their vehicles. Security personnel were stationed around the house to prevent anyone from entering or exiting, while Vijayanagar Police provided security outside.

Mason to millionaire in... just 10 years !

Additionally, Jayaram managed the Vakrathunda Housing Cooperative Society, where he held full authority. The 50:50 site transactions, sanctioned by former MUDA Commissioner G.T. Dinesh Kumar, reportedly involved Jayaram as a middleman, with Dinesh Kumar believed to have funnelled dubious dealings through him.

Many politicians and officials allegedly acquired 50:50 MUDA sites through Jayaram's contacts, subsequently selling them for substantial profits. As Jayaram's connections come under scrutiny, the ED probe suggests that further raids could target several politicians and officials linked to these questionable land deals.

Buyers anxious

With the Enforcement Directorate (ED) raiding M.M.G. Constructions, anxiety has surged among buyers who acquired MUDA's 50:50 sites through Jayaram. As news of the raid spread, many buyers gathered outside his office, visibly tense and seeking information about the unfolding situation.

Numerous individuals were seen stopping by, questioning those nearby before leaving with evident concern. One buyer, speaking with journalists, revealed, "A friend who purchased a site from Jayaram asked me to come check on what's happening here after hearing about the ED raid."

Sites bought through settlement deeds

Many of these sites were reportedly bought through settlement deeds, allowing buyers to evade income tax and stamp duty, thereby defrauding the Government. As the ED investigation intensifies, buyers are increasingly worried that they may become embroiled in a broader inquiry.

I have just got five sites under 50:50 ratio: Jayaram

I have provided all the information and documents requested by the ED officials. Over the past several years, I have constructed thousands of houses and allocated numerous sites. I received five sites under the 50:50 ratio from the Catholic Society and I have submitted details regarding this as well. The Vakrathunda Cooperative Society is public and I serve as a decision-maker within it. This society belongs to us.

I came to Mysuru as a mason and have worked my way up to this level. I have no connection with former MUDA Commissioner G.T. Dinesh Kumar. He only visited for layout work in his capacity as MUDA Commissioner.

Additionally, Dinesh Kumar's brother-in-law, Tejas Gowda, has not engaged in any dealings with us and I do not have much information about him. If the ED summons me again in the future, I will gladly attend the inquiry."

CLAY LAMPS flicker amidst onslaught of MODERN LIGHTS

Artisans hope for Government's financial support to carry on this generational occupation

By M.T. Yogesh Kumar

Traditional eco-friendly earthen lamps, handcrafted by the potters of Kumbara Kushala Kaigarika Sangha in Doora village, just a few kilometres from Mysuru, are poised to brighten homes this Deepavali.

This year, the potters have crafted over 70,000 lamps for the market. However, sales have fallen short of expectations, as chemically manufactured lamps — attractive and made with various moulds — present stiff competition to these traditional offerings.

Clay lamps are lit to bring auspiciousness and ward off darkness in every household. While electric lights dominate in this modern era, the age-old tradition of clay lamps remains significant, especially in rural areas.

For the past nine months, the members of Kumbara Kushala Kaigarika Sangha, comprising over 30 artisans from 14 families, have diligently produced lamps in their village workshop.

Earlier, there was hope that the demand for handmade lamps would increase, but the influx of private competitors has led to a drastic decline in production, plummeting from approximately 3,00,000 to 4,00,000 lamps to just 70,000 to 80,000.

Despite Prime Minister Narendra Modi promoting products from cottage industries on his popular radio show 'Mann Ki Baat' under the 'Vocal for Local' initiative, consumer response has remained lukewarm, with many opting for harmful chemical-laden products instead.

Affordable and eco-friendly

The eco-friendly earthen lamps, priced between Rs. 3 and Rs. 5 each, starkly contrast with moulded lamps that sell for Rs. 25 to Rs. 35, sourced from various States. Potters are urging the community to support local artisans by purchasing their handmade lamps.

Gangaraju, a member of the Sangha, said: "The State Government must implement welfare schemes to benefit the Kumbara community. There is a pressing need to create opportunities for us to showcase our talents during Dasara and other national festivals."

Despite being in the profession for decades, he lamented the declining demand for clay lamps due to the rise of electric lights and candles. He also noted the increasing cost of raw materials, making it difficult to sustain a livelihood from this craft.

Years of expertise

Crafting these earthen lamps requires years of expertise. The clay, sourced from local lakes, is carefully prepared for lamp production. Each lamp is handcrafted without machinery, dried for three days and then baked to enhance durability. While some lamps may break during this process, the majority successfully reach the market.

Although the ancient tradition of clay lamp making struggles to survive in an age of modernisation, a flicker of hope remains. During Deepavali, many households in Mysuru, especially in the hinterland, still prefer humble clay lamps to illuminate their homes and chase away the darkness. This lingering demand is what keeps the artisans clinging to their age-old craft.

As the festival of lights Deepavali approaches, the clay artisans remain hopeful that their efforts will bring light into the lives of others, even as they navigate the growing pressures of modern technology and shifting consumer preferences.

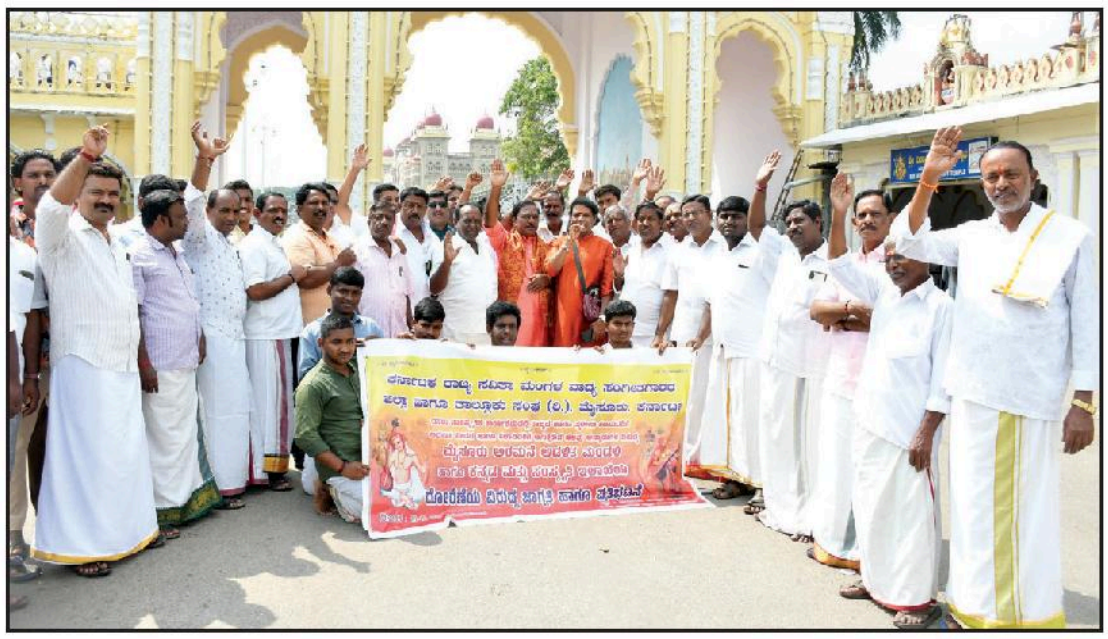
Mangalavadya artistes stage protest against injustice during Dasara



Mysuru, Oct. 30 (GA&DM)- Alleging that Mangalavadya artistes have been rendered injustice in Dasara cultural programmes, members of Karnataka Rajya Savita Mangalavadya Sangeetagarara Jilla haagu Taluku Sangha, staged a demonstration in front of Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple at the North Gate of the Palace yesterday.

"The State and local artistes are being rendered injustice by denying them opportunities in Dasara cultural programmes. They are not being given a chance in any Dasara platforms, in which single artiste/ group is getting repeated chances. This has resulted in the ignorance of other talented artistes, who are not getting a chance despite repeated pleas," they alleged.

Charging that the corruption on the part of Kannada & Culture Department and Mysore Palace Board authorities has resulted in injustice to genuine artistes, the protesters demanded that all artistes be given a chance at least in the future Dasara programmes.

They also alleged that the authorities have been regularly failing in their promise of resolving the issue.

Artistes S. Puttaraju, M.N. Srinivasu, Narayan, Harish, Krishna, Ajay, Sridhar and others were present.

'Belaku-Holapu: Ambedkar Krantikari Vicharagala Chintana Manthana' held

Actor Prakash Belawadi inaugurating 'Belaku-Holapu' programme organised at Ganabharathi's Veene Seshanna Bhavan in Kuvempunagar recently as Yuva Brigade Founder Chakravarty Sulibele and Dr. Chandrashekar of Aditya Hospital look on.

Mysuru, Oct. 30 (BLU&DM)- Actor Prakash Belawadi observed that the value of Rupee would not have declined against the Dollar had great leaders like Dr. B.R. Ambedkar been alive today.

He was speaking after inaugurating 'Belaku-Holapu: Ambedkar Krantikari Vicharagala Chintana Manthana' programme organised by Yuva Brigade at Ganabharathi Veene Seshanna Bhavan in Kuvempunagar here on Sunday.

Recalling that Dr. Ambedkar had got a Doctoral degree a century ago for his thesis on the value of Rupee against the Dollar, Belawadi noted that Dr. Ambedkar is a critic within us and we have to accept him.

Pointing out that we should follow the life and writings of Dr. Ambedkar, he said that we need not look at others for reviewing our political and social systems. There is no other personality who took a hard look at our country's administration, he added.

"We have to read the writings of Dr. Ambedkar and Rabindranath Tagore. Tagore has written on the great values of Hinduism in his book 'Gora' while severely opposing untouchability and superstitions. Ambedkar had strived for country to come out of a British dominated global system. The BRICS group which includes India should take a decision on coming out of Dollar centric economic system. Then the Gross Income Per Head will become four times higher," he argued.

Opining that the economic system of our country would have been better today had Dr. Ambedkar become the Finance Minister when India got independence, he regretted the grave injustice rendered to Dr. Ambedkar in his struggles for bringing about social parity.

Yuva Brigade Founder Chakravarty Sulibele, in his address, maintained that Dr. Ambedkar was determined to weed out the social evil of untouchability. It is the Congress which brought in several amendments to Dr. Ambedkar's Constitution, he added.

Writers G.B. Harish, Patapat Srinivas, Sudhakar Hosahalli, M.C. Kattimani, S.R. Leela and Praveenkumar Mavinakadu too spoke. Dr. Chandrashekar of Aditya Hospital and others were present on the occasion.

Darshan gets interim bail

Senior Advocate C.V. Nagesh, representing Darshan, presented medical reports indicating that the actor suffers from spinal and foot conditions requiring urgent surgical intervention.

The advocate noted that Darshan is experiencing L5 and S1 disc issues, which could adversely affect his blood circulation.

The High Court reviewed medical reports from specialists at Ballari Central Prison and Vijayanagara Institute of Medical Sciences (VIMS), confirming the necessity of surgery.

Nagesh argued that Darshan's medical condition necessitates treatment at a private hospital in Mysuru and confirmed that Darshan would bear all expenses.

However, Public Prosecutor Prasanna Kumar opposed interim bail request, raising concerns regarding the expected duration of hospitalisation and suggesting that the surgery should occur at a Government facility following a thorough assessment by a medical board.

The Court questioned Nagesh on the choice of Mysuru for the surgery. "Why Mysuru? Let a doctor in Bengaluru examine and provide an assessment of the surgery's urgency and duration. Interim bail is time-limited and we need to understand how long you would be hospitalised," Justice Shetty stated. Nagesh reiterated his request for the operation to be done at the Mysuru facility. However, the Court ordered to undergo treatment in Bengaluru only.

Regular bail pending

Darshan's regular bail plea remains pending, but the High Court's recent order offers him temporary relief to address his medical needs. The actor's bail application, submitted on Sept. 21, was previously rejected by the Sessions Court.

In response, he approached the High Court for interim bail to receive necessary treatment. On Aug. 29, Darshan was transferred to Ballari Central Prison from Bengaluru Central Prison in Parappana Agrahara after photographs and videos surfaced of him chilling out with other 'privileged' prisoners including a known rowdy-sheeter Wilson Garden Naga, on the prison grounds. The footage also showed him making a video call from his cell.

Family arrives in Ballari

Following the High Court's granting of the interim bail, Darshan's family, including his wife Vijayalakshmi and close associates, arrived at Ballari Central Prison. Sources indicate that the actor could be released later in the day, pending receipt of the release order. Meanwhile, Kashinathaiah, father of the deceased Renukaswamy, addressed media personnel in Chitradurga regarding Darshan's interim bail, stating they had no objections to the actor being granted bail, but emphasised that their pursuit of justice would continue.

Implement internal reservation as per SC ruling: Advocates Forum tells State Govt.

Mysuru, Oct. 30 (BLU&DM)- The Karnataka Samaajika Nyayapara Vakeelara Vedike (Advocates Forum) has urged the State Government to implement quota within quota among SC communities without any further delay.

Arunkumar

Addressing a press meet at Pathrakarthara Bhavan here this morning, Vedike President and senior Advocate S. Arunkumar accused the State Congress Government of intentionally delaying the implementation of the Supreme Court ruling that States are constitutionally empowered to make sub-classifications within the Scheduled Castes (SC) for granting reservation for the upliftment of castes that are socially and educationally more backward, by announcing the formation of a Commission for internal reservation to look into the matter.

Arunkumar said that the Congress Government has been intentionally vague or ambiguous in providing inner reservation.

Pointing out that the previous BJP Government increased the reservation quota for SC from 15 to 17 percent, he alleged that the Congress Government seems to stand against this as it has announced formation of a Commission headed by a retired High Court Judge to look into the matter.

"The Congress Government has been misleading the innocent communities among SCs saying that the BJP Government was against the implementation of Sadashiva Commission Report on inner reservation. The previous BJP Government had recommended the Centre for hiking the SC reservation quota taking into account the scientific data. But the Congress Government is not ready to accept the Sadashiva Commission Report now. But, it was the same Congress which had promised to implement the Sadashiva Commission Report in its election manifesto for the 2023 Assembly polls," he noted.

Vedike office-bearers M. Shivakumar, Dasaiah, L. Rajendra, Chandrasena Sagar and Surendra were present at the press meet.

WORD OF THE DAY

Garnish

Pronunciation: GAHR-nish (verb).
Meaning: To garnish food or drink is to add decorative and tasty touches to it, such as a spiral of lemon peel.
Origin: When it comes to meanings, garnish giveth, and garnish taketh away. To garnish something is to decorate it, embellish it, give it that extra bit of culinary or designer flair—say, a sprig of parsley or a string of garland. In decidedly different contexts, however, to garnish something—such as the wages of someone who is in debt—is to take it by legal authority. How did this word come to have such opposite meanings? The answer lies in garnish's Anglo-French root, garnir, which has various meanings including "to give notice or legal summons" and "to decorate." Before wages were garnished, the debtor would be served with a legal summons or warning. The legal sense of garnish now focuses on the taking of the wages, but it is rooted in the action of furnishing the warning.
Example: "For the more modern power diner, attuned to the virtuous aesthetics of wellness, there's a suite of blended juices served in slim-stemmed wine glasses, each garnished with a floating edible flower, and an airy hummus made of whipped sunflower seeds, served with a rainbow of crudités on a bed of ice." — Helen Rosner, The New Yorker, 21 Apr. 2024.

THE ODD WORD

Galimatias

Nonsense; confused mixture of unrelated things.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Going postal

Meaning: 'Going postal' means to become extremely angry, often to point of rage and violence, especially when provoked in a workplace setting.
Origin: The origin of the phrase derives from a series of incidents involving U.S. Postal workers, who shot and killed fellow workers and members of the public in 1986. The first recorded use was in an article by Karl Vick's 'Violence at work tied to loss of esteem', published on December 17th 1993 in the St. Petersburg Times: "The symposium was sponsored by the U.S. Postal Service, which has been so many outbursts that in some circles excessive stress is known as 'going postal'..."
Example: "Did you hear that Mark went postal yesterday at the office, after his manager told him that Jane's getting the promotion he was promised."

QUOTE BOX

When people bury treasure nowadays they do it in the Post-Office bank.

MLC regrets commercialisation of medical profession

MLC Dr. D. Thimmaiah (fourth from left) releasing the books authored Dr. Arkalgud Neelakanta Murthy at the Institution of Engineers-India (IEI) on JLB Road in city recently. Others seen are (from left) Dr. K.S. Umashankar, senior Journalist Amshi Prasannakumar, Trust Founder Dr. MGR Urs, Vaidyavartha Prakashana Director HMT Lingaraje Urs, Mysore Medical College retired Professor Dr. J. Prasannakumar, author Dr. Arkalgud Neelakanta Murthy, his wife Kamala Neelakanta Murthy and Pharmacist M. Nataraj.

Mysuru, Oct. 30 (MTY&DM)- Regretting that the medical profession is getting more and more commercialised in the recent days, MLC Dr. D. Thimmaiah said, however, there is a ray of hope as some medical professionals with human values, are rendering service to the society.

He was speaking after releasing Dr. Arkalgud Neelakanta Murthy's three works — 'Samayada Neeru Matte Hariyuva Hottu', 'Hennobbalu Garbhakoshagaleradu' and 'Mukhadindeddu Yettalo Nadeda Kannu' — at a programme organised under the joint aegis of Ursu Jagruti Academy Charitable Trust, Mysuru and Vaidyavartha Prakashana, Mysuru, at the Institution of Engineers-India (IEI) on JLB Road here recently.

Observing that the human anatomy is really mysterious, Dr. Thimmaiah said that, the anatomy of women is more complex in nature when compared to men. "The book's author has written about a rare phenomenon of two uterus (or womb) in a woman. There should be more research on this phenomenon," he said adding that the medical profession, being the noblest profession since ages, should remain the same forever.

Mysore Medical College retired Professor Dr. J. Prasannakumar, who spoke about the books, said that the books explain about complex medical conditions in a simple and lucid manner. Pointing out that double uterus is a birth defect which can be seen only in 0.3 percent of women, he said that the author has written about the symptoms and diagnosis of this defect in a most interesting manner. This will enhance the knowledge of the readers as well as the doctors, Dr. Prasannakumar added.

He further said that Dr. Neelakanta Murthy, who had worked for 13 years in Somalia in the 1970s, has penned down his experiences of working there in his earlier work 'Kaggataleya Khandadalli.'
